

Russell P. Austin is Battelle's Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary. He serves as the chief legal officer and Secretary to the Battelle Board of Directors. He is on the Battelle Executive Committee.

Austin manages the Intellectual Property Law Department, the Mergers & Acquisitions/Tax Department and the Aviation Department. The Legal Relationship Managers for the Laboratory Operations, National Security, Health & Life Sciences, and Energy global businesses report to Austin as well. Austin maintains an oversight relationship with Battelle's records management office to address various compliance issues.

Austin joined Battelle in December 2001. Prior to joining Battelle he was a partner in the Columbus office of Arter & Hadden, where he was a member of the Corporate and Securities Law Practice Group. During his tenure with Arter & Hadden, he served as the Acting General Counsel for CompuServe Incorporated.

Prior to joining Arter & Hadden, Austin was a partner with the Columbus law firm of Schwartz, Kelm, Warren & Rubenstein, where he practiced corporate and securities law.

Austin currently serves on the Board of the Ground Work Group, Opera Columbus, The Columbus Council on World Affairs, Columbus Downtown Development Corporation, and Capitol South Community Urban Redevelopment Corporation. Austin also serves on the LL.M. Advisory Council for the Moritz College of Law at The Ohio State University and is a member of the Dean's Advisory Council at the University of Toledo College of Law.

Austin graduated from Central Michigan University and earned his law degree from The University of Toledo College of Law, where he was a member of Law Review.