

Mark Merino
VP Product Development

Command Alkon Incorporated

Mark Merino leads the Product Development efforts at Command Alkon, a global provider of software and automation solutions for the Construction Materials industry. In this role, Mr. Merino leads a group of 80+ employees in multiple locations across the USA, UK, France and India. An employee of 19 years, Mr. Merino has held positions as Vice President Manufacturing, Director of Batch Product Development, and Production Manager. Mr. Merino has a BSEE from The University of Akron and an MBA from Franklin University.