

PRACTICE FOCUS

Bennett works in the firm's business, intellectual property and litigation areas. He has been with the firm since 2005.

Creditors' Rights and Bankruptcy

Dan manages a national portfolio of multi-million-dollar collections cases for firm clients, including for Cardinal Health, a $99 billion company ranked #19 on the Fortune 500. He regularly coordinates with counsel across the country and ensures the complete satisfaction of Kegler Brown's clients. Dan also handles bankruptcy matters stemming from collections cases, and provides advice in connection with workouts and/or sales involving collateral.

Business

Dan advises clients in every stage of the business life cycle, including business formation and structuring, contract drafting and negotiation, with the primary focus of counseling buyers and sellers in acquisition transactions, such as mergers, asset purchases, stock purchases and reorganizations.

Litigation

Additionally, Dan practices in the firm's Litigation department, gaining experience in a broad range of business litigation matters ranging from disputes in small claims courts to multi-million dollar contract cases.

Dan BENNETT
ASSOCIATE

CONTACT ME

dbennett@keglerbrown.com p 614 . 462 . 5448
f 614 . 464 . 2634

Business & Tax

Creditors' Rights & Bankruptcy

Litigation

Mergers & Acquisitions

“All other things being equal,
the simplest solution is the best.”

Dan BENNETT ASSOCIATE

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Served as an intern, focusing on mutual fund, stock and bond research, as well as financial mapping, for Prudential Securities, Inc. in Chicago, Illinois in 2001.

Worked with the Chicago, Illinois-based TransMarket Group, as a futures trader on the London International Financial Futures Exchange.

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

Columbus Bar Association, member

Ohio State Bar Association, member

BAR ADMISSIONS

Ohio

EDUCATION

Juris Doctorate (2005)

Case Western Reserve University School of Law
Cum laude; Order of the Coif; Law Review, member

Bachelor of Science, Finance (2002)

DePaul University

With high honor; Men's Varsity Tennis, 1998-2002