

PRACTICE FOCUS

Rasheeda practices primarily in the Professional Responsibility and Litigation practice areas of the firm, but also focuses her talents in the areas of Criminal Defense and Administrative Law. She has been with the firm since 2002.

Professional Responsibility

Rasheeda regularly advises lawyers and law firms on ethics and professional responsibility issues, including fee disputes, conflicts of interest, recordkeeping, confidentiality, and chemical dependency or mental disability problems associated with professional misconduct. Her representative clients include lawyers throughout Ohio at every stage of the disciplinary process, from the investigation to the Ohio Supreme Court.

Litigation

An experienced litigator, Rasheeda's practice entails trial and appellate advocacy in state and federal court. She is skilled in motion practice and also in negotiating, litigating and resolving contract, construction, insurance and real estate disputes. Rasheeda represents commercial and government entities, as well as individuals.

Criminal Defense

Rasheeda provides professional, hands-on representation of clients charged with criminal offenses in federal, common pleas, municipal and mayors' courts.

Administrative Practice

Additionally, Rasheeda represents businesses, nonprofit organizations and individuals in licensing matters before administrative agencies and licensing boards. She assists clients in obtaining licenses from various administrative agencies and offers preventative consultation on compliance and filing requirements.
