

PRACTICE FOCUS

Tim is a trial lawyer and mediator. He practices primarily in the areas of litigation, including both trial and appellate practice, medical malpractice, personal injury, and mediation. Tim has handled a high volume of complex personal injury cases from both the plaintiff and defense perspective, which gives him a unique insight when mediating cases. Tim has served as the firm's Marketing Chair since 1999. He joined the firm after graduating from The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law in 1989.

Litigation

Tim has extensive experience in trial and appellate work. He has tried dozens of cases to verdict, including both jury trials and bench trials in state and federal courts. Besides Ohio, he has handled complex litigation in North Carolina, Florida, and Indiana. He has handled dozens of temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction hearings, as well as administrative trials.

Medical Malpractice

Tim counsels clients regarding diverse medical malpractice negligence claims involving a wide range of medical specialties. In addition, Tim has also served as counsel to medical practitioners and hospitals and assisted them in avoiding millions of dollars in malpractice negligence claims.

Personal Injury

Tim provides experienced counsel to victims of injuries caused by automobile collisions, product liability, and general negligence. Tim also aggressively assists clients in navigating the negotiation process with insurers and their legal counsel and has extensive experience in securing the best possible results for his clients. Tim has vast experience dealing with insurance companies, including underinsured claims, uninsured claims, and subrogation.
