Keith joined the firm in 1986 and currently serves as Kegler Brown's information specialist. He is responsible for all aspects of the library operations, including maintenance of all subscriptions (print and web), audiovisual requests, and negotiation and purchase of all online databases.

Before joining Kegler Brown, Keith was a reference librarian for eight years in the local public library system. He graduated in 1981 from The Ohio State University with a Bachelor of Arts in Military History. Keith then went on to the University of Pittsburgh from which he graduated in 1983 with a Master of Library and Information Science degree.

Active in the American Association of Law Libraries since 1992, Keith is also an associate member of the Columbus Bar Association and serves on the Legal Research and Information Resources Committee.
