Known for her calm demeanor, thoughtful advice and fierce advocacy, Lori has established a reputation as one of the most revered women lawyers in the state. She represents companies in complex business and employment matters, both as a counselor and in the courtroom. Lori uses her two decades of experience to help companies navigate business disputes with customers and vendors, and advises companies on employment matters. When the need to litigate arises, Lori seamlessly steps into the ring, having tried cases in state and federal courts, both inside Ohio and elsewhere. Chambers USA reports that Lori is praised for being “able to ‘engender confidence and trust’ and exhibits an ‘obvious awareness of not only legal issues but business consideration and risk assessment.’” The industry recognition she has received tells us others agree:
