Scott joined Kegler Brown in 2013 and has more than 25 years of experience assisting individuals, small businesses and industry clients in managing federal, state and local environmental, facility siting and natural resource utilization issues. This experience provides a strong foundation for offering effective short-term and long-term strategic advice and perspective.

Environmental Law

Scott has assisted clients with the resolution of federal and state environmental enforcement actions, governmental and private-party cost recovery actions, toxic tort claims and citizen suits. He has facilitated state and federal permitting associated with industrial, commercial and residential site development, oil and gas production and transmission, and natural resource mitigation banking. Scott is active in a number of industry associations and regularly contributes to industry-wide efforts to achieve cost-effective and predictable state and federal rulemaking.
