

2014 Diversity Scholarship

About Kegler Brown's Diversity Scholarship

The Columbus, Ohio-based law firm of Kegler, Brown, Hill + Ritter is offering two first-year law students, who are members of historically underrepresented populations, each a $5,000 scholarship, plus a paid summer clerkship position with our first-year class. All first-year diverse law students are eligible for the scholarship.

The Kegler, Brown, Hill + Ritter Diversity Scholarship is awarded annually based on demonstrated academic performance, accomplishments and activities.

Those interested in being considered should submit the following materials no later than January 17, 2014:

1. Resume
2. Undergraduate Transcripts
3. First Semester Transcripts when available
4. Completed Application Questions (Please keep each response to one typed page):
 - + Describe a major accomplishment that has shaped your life, how it influenced your decision to pursue a career in law and prepared you for your future as a lawyer.
 - + Explain what diversity means to you.
 - + List any training and/or experience you believe to be relevant to this clerkship.
 - + Discuss why you have applied for this scholarship.

These materials should be sent to the attention of Cara M. Tammaro, Director of Human Resources.
Make sure to include your name, address, phone number, e-mail address, and list minority status in your application.
